Exhibition
of French Samples of
ART
APPLIED TO INDUSTRIES

To be held at New York City
(in the Ball Room of the Hotel Pennsylvania)

July twenty-fourth to August twenty-fourth Nineteen-nineteen

THROUGH this exhibition the producers of French Industrial Art speak to America, and especially to American merchants and buyers who appreciate choice, novel and charmingly designed goods of the kind shown. The distinctively French character of the exhibits, the varied collection grouped in one place, obviating the necessity of visiting different factories and showrooms, is planned to meet the needs of America, and is an unique opportunity to place orders for articles of quality, of a design and originality which distinguish them from those made on this side of the Atlantic.
